WOMEN'S PRESSTURNS

Feminist publishing house Women's Press in Toronto is celebrating its 25th anniversary this year. Over the years, the press has published more than 120 titles featuring the words and voices of a broad range of women in Canada.

To mark its anniversary in Vancouver, Women's Press, along with Women in Print bookstore, will be hosting a evening of readings by three women who have published with the press: Lydia Kwa, Carmen Rodriguez [left] and Karen X. Tulchinsky [right]. Kwa is the author of The Colours of Heroines, Rodriguez, the author of Guerra Prolongada/Protracted War, and Tulchinsky the author of In Her Nature.

The reading will be held on Tuesday, October 7, 7:30pm at Women in Print, 3566 W. 4th Ave. Admission is free. For more information, call 732-4728.
